What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.
 Blue streamer—RAIN.
 White streamer—FAIR.
 With black above—(will) WARMER.
 With black below—(will) COLDER.

 Unless black's shown—no change will be.

☞ The above forecasts are made for a period of twenty-four hours, ending at 6 o'clock to-morrow.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter the sale of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Call upon THE LEDGER for free notices has become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following

For Notices of Shoppers.

For notices of shoppers, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS a line, and hereafter this will be the unalterable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Notices in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local notice. The bill is "I tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But the bill is for two months—40 lines—the bill is $10. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy. Followed probably by an oral telling. Now to avoid this trouble, and to save the notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

☞ All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

☞ If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mrs. Amanda Foster of Manchester is visiting Mrs. B. B. Chunn of West Third street.

Mr. W. W. Wyckoff has been in Cincinnati since Tuesday enjoying the election returns.

Mrs. William Newberry and little daughter Vernon have returned home after a week's visit with her mother and friends at Ripley.

Everybody pronounced yesterday's Lexington a perfect peach. Even our Popocate friends enjoyed it—at a distance.

Send in your news items by mail and by telephone. THE LEDGER will eschew politics for awhile and enter the local news field.

When a newspaper reporter uses too much red ink in writing up a local occurrence, the proper way to secure a proper correction is to apply to the proper person in a proper manner.

The election returns from this county are now complete, showing that Bryan carried the county by 117 and that Thomas for Congress got a majority of 163 over Judge Pugh. Thirty-nine votes were thrown away on the Prohibition candidate and 31 were wasted on General Palmer.

NINTH DISTRICT.

It's a Close Race Between Messrs. Pugh and Thomas.

It might close between Pugh and Thomas. With the chances in favor of Judge Pugh by about 200.

Returns from several of the counties are so imperfect and varying that it is not worth while to give a tabulated statement until more definite information is at hand.

DON'T WORRY.

The worry cow
 Might have lived till now,
 If she hadn't lost her breath;
 But she thought her hay
 Wouldn't last her all day,
 So she worried herself to death.

The easy enough to be pleasant

 But men work with a smile
 Is the man with a smile
 When everything goes dead wrong.

E. R. Jones, for disorderly conduct, was yesterday fined $3 and costs.

George W. Walker has been appointed Road Overseer, in place of Milton Bramel resigned.

George Ewing was yesterday fined $35 and costs for breach of the peace, and was sent to jail.

William Henry Holland and Miss Anna Swart, both of this county, will be married at Maysville on the 8th of this month.

The venerable Eli F. Metcalfe of this city, who is 89 years old, voted Tuesday for the seventeenth time for President of the United States, having voted first for Andrew Jackson in 1828.

Bruce and Boone Shapp were arraigned yesterday before Judge Wadsworth, charged with breach of the peace in striking Bruce Newman with a rock, but their cases were continued till Saturday.

If you are looking for a bargain in Gold Watches or any goods in the line of fine Jewelry, Silverware, Clocks, Bibles, etc., P. J. Murphy the Jeweler is overstocked. You can buy these goods cheaper now than ever before.

The high winds this morning blew the awning up at the grocery of Mrs. Kate Cook, and when it fell back the pole crashed through one of the large show windows. Several other awnings that weren't tied down were blown into shreds.

At least one election bot was paid yesterday when George Cook trundled Frank Landgraf through the principal streets in a wheelbarrow. The procession was accompanied by a dog that kept up an incessant barking at the novelty of the affair.

Business has improved already. The Lexington man yesterday met one of the business men of the city on his way to bank, with more great big good-old silver dollars than a male could back down hill on ice on a slippery day, and this merchant confessed that his receipts were so large that he was going to bank for the second time in one day.

THE U. C. T.'S.

An Organization That Never Forgets Its Members.

The following note was handed THE LEDGER man yesterday afternoon:

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL, CINCINNATI, Oct. 23d, 1896.

George F. Brown, Secretary, Myrtleville Council, U. C. T.—Dear Sir: I am in receipt of check for $300, part of indemnity which I did not expect until I filed claim in full. I appreciate the efforts of the Executive Committee in my behalf. I am getting along nicely and expect to be home in a few days. Respectfully,
 JOHN D. MUSE.

Mr. Muse has been a member of Maysville Council since its organization several years ago.

Our reporter has learned that some $1,500 has been distributed among its members.

The cost is very small, and as there are a number of business men in this city eligible to membership, it is to be hoped that they will make application at once.

Information will gladly be given any person who desires by asking any of its members.

Constitutions can be had by asking the Secretary.

Sometimes it seems to weary woman that she must certainly give up. The simplest and easiest work becomes an almost insurmountable task. Nervousness, sleeplessness and pain harass her and life seems hardly worth the living.
 Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was made for her. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was made for her. The former is for its distinctly feminine, the other for her general system. Together they supply a scientific and successful course of treatment. The "Favorite Prescription" restores health, regular action to the organs distinctly feminine. It forces out all impurities, strengthens the system, alleviates inflammation. The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes appetite, helps digestion, promotes assimilation, fills out the hollows in the cheeks and neck with good soft flesh and brings back the gleaming glow of youth.
 Send it cents in one-cent stamps to "World's Dispensary, Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y." and receive Dr. Pierce's 100 page COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISOR, illustrated.

A dainty dish to serve at a luncheon is lemon toast. Take the yolks of three eggs, beat them well and stir them into a breakfast cup of milk, cut some stale bread in slices and soak them for a minute in the milk and eggs, then fry in a delicate brown in boiling butter; squeeze over a little lemon juice, add sifted sugar and serve very hot.

County Clerk Stein's office at Covington was broken into and the stenographer was used at the Republican precincts stolen.

The oldest voter in Chicago, who has seen sixty-six summers and who had always before been a Democrat, voted for McKinley.

An Episcopal Bishop of Dublin dropped dead while going for a doctor for his sick wife, who was herself shortly after found dead in bed.

There are now more than 90 Telephones in use in the city, and the number is increasing daily. The service is not only good, but it is cheap.

NOTHING NEW!

Several Foolish Free-Silver Grapevines.

"OUR FLAG IS STILL THERE."

There is positively no change in the National situation.

McKinley is elected; and that's all there is to that.

The Popocrats—at least that portion of them that never find a thing out until it is old as the eggs they track at John G. Carlisle—have been "swallowing" a few grapevine telegrams from Cincinnati that claim Bryan's election.

We understand these "grapevines" are based on no better authority than Allen O. Myers.

The situation in Kentucky is unchanged, the McKinleyites claiming the state with certainty, and the Bryanites hoping that something may turn up to give it to them.

In this District the race is very close between Pugh and Thomas.

Mr. Thomas himself figures Judge Pugh's majority at 174.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA & AMERICANS!

Mr. Bryan is another statesman out of a jaw. If BARKUM were alive he would corral him for use at the pink lemonade stand or the snake charmer's table.

NOW that the voting and the shouting are both over, and that all the abuse heaped upon loyal Democrats has come to naught, THE LEDGER is going to know how B'r Bryan is curious to "square" himself with Messrs. CLEVELAND, CARLISLE, LINDSEY and the thousands of others who have so often led his party to victory on true Democratic principles. It will require the best efforts of even an India rubber conscience.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it cured excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

PROBLEM OF SERVANTS.

Difficulties pointed out and means to overcome them.

Illustrated American.
If the family has been at a hotel all summer, a return to the town home means an instant search for servants. Until they are procured no steps can be taken, either toward righting the house or toward turning it.

The supply seems to equal the demand in numbers, if not in ability, and it is largely a matter of luck whether prizes are drawn or not.

There is so much to complain of on this score that housekeepers are often stifled into silence and accept with composure uncomfortable conditions lest worst ones take their place.

As a rule, the complaint pleases, who stands at the gate between the advancing armies of employers and employees, calmly announces to the former that wages are higher this year, and there is nothing to do but submit.

This annual rise has exasperated some women into discovering its reason. It lies no further away than the demands of the keeper of the intelligence office, who obtains a higher fee from both Mistress and Maid in proportion to the wages given.

Thus, a servant receiving $10 gives an extra bonus to the office, and an employer engaging a servant at high wages pays the office more for the privilege.

The annual autumnal increase in wages, with so perceptible improvement in the quality of the labor bought, has at last stimulated women to work out their own salvation in the matter.

Training schools for servants are becoming common all through the country, and are under the management of philanthropic women glad to indorse and advance a cause of such evident benefit to two large classes of individuals, housekeepers and housekeepers.

On the whole, however, housekeepers are willing to put good things into hands that have been proven competent, and, with the improved training evincing its delightful results in the cuisine, will come the readiness on the part of the Mistress to furnish her maid with proper appliances.

One or two caregivers suggest that trained servant will demand higher wages. Two arguments meet that: one, that we see the rise in rates anyway; and the other, that we can afford to pay more for intelligent service than neither wastes nor destroys.

P.P.P.—President, Protection, Prosperity!

Regular monthly meeting of the Board of Council this evening.

Senator Lindsey voted for Palmer, Buckner, Pryor and Breckinridge.

At Tuesday's election Winfield Buckner was chosen Police Judge of Carlisle, beating Harry Kennedy by 51.

The Salvation Army will inaugurate a self-denial campaign November 10, to continue one week. It is proposed thereby to realize $40,000 for the needs of the Army throughout the United States during the coming winter.

Stephen Terhune stabbed and killed Britton Dillon at Sherburne. Terhune objected to Dillon paying attention to his daughter, and warned him to keep away from her. The warning was unheeded and the killing took place. Both are farmers. Terhune is under arrest.

The William Powell Brass Works of Cincinnati started Wednesday with 375 men on full time. This had been promised in case of the favorable settlement of the question of honest money.

275 to 300 men were employed at these works and only a short time. This is a great big straw showing how business is to begin duty from November 3d, 1899.

On the Contrary.

New York Herald.
"Do you have any conscientious scruples against capital punishment?" asked the Judge.

"No, sire," replied the witness. "I'm a middle of the road Populist and agin capital, fast, last and allers."

A Sad Blunder.

Leading Prohibitionist—"And how far is your rural home from the nearest rum-shop?"

The Indiscreet Farmer—"Why, it's only a half dozen rods or so. You could easily crawl home on your hands and knees on 't' darkest night an' not miss 't' way."

GIVE AND TAKE.

Phil Clark Replies to His Old Friend George Adamson.

Mr. George P. Adamson, formerly of this city, is prominently identified with the Enterprise Soap Works, Nashville.

George is also a mighty fierce fellow; and withal, he is a very intense Dem. Popocrat. A few days ago he sent a postal card to Mr. Phil Clark of this city, and here's what he said to Phil:

ENTERPRISE SOAP WORKS, NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 24, 1899.
Dear Phil: Don't forget to put one in for Bryan and LaRue Thomas. What Tennessee will do for McKinley will be a plenty. Regards to all.

GEO. P. ADAMSON.
Now, Phil, be it known, is 'a son of the old school,' who has been here long enough to appreciate the boon of a free country and to enjoy the privileges of an American citizen. He is also an earnest Republican, has been one ever since he learned that Republicanism stood for Good Government and National Honesty, and expects always to be one; so here is what he wrote in reply to Mr. Adamson:

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 24, 1899.
Geo. P. Adamson, Enterprise Soap Works, Nashville, Tenn.—Dear George: I have your postal card of 24 of November. You did me not forget. Well, I did not forget, for I've a good memory. I have a lively recollection of Republican party, with honest-dollar money plentiful, with mills going, with labor for every man's work at good wages. No, I could not forget that and vote for what seemed to me the opposite of all these blessings. Very much obliged for what Tennessee has done for McKinley. It is a "plenty." Next time McKinley won't "do a thing" to the South but scoop the whole outfit. Go to work and spread Enterprise Soap all over the South so the Bryanites may wash away the Popocracy and "clean up" and get in condition to come into the fold with clean hands—and feet. Your friend, PHIL CLARK.

Profession.

Washington Star.
There was a look of intense anxiety on the face of the man who had pushed open the door of the scientist.

"Professor," he said, "you know a great deal about nerves."

"Yes, I wish you would find out for me and let me know as early as possible how the nerves are the sensitive, the optic nerves or the auditory nerves."

"What do you want to know for?"

"Well, you see I am a believer in the theory that absolute perfection is an impossibility. And, at the same time, I think a man has always the right to choose the lesser of two evils."

"What has all this to do with it?"

"Two girls have taken advantage of the fact that it's leap year and proposed to me. One of them paints and the other plays the piano."

THE WALDORF'S OWNER.

A $5,000,000 Investment Which Mr. Astor Has Seen Once.

Chicago Record.
William Waldorf Astor has $5,000,000 invested in the Waldorf Hotel, and has been under its roof but once, only to visit a friend who happened to be staying there. He drove to the ladies' entrance, walked through the hall about fifty feet to an elevator, got out at the fifth floor, went to Mr. Kismet's room, remained half an hour or more, rode down the elevator, walked to his carriage without looking to the right hand or the left and drove away.

He has been in New York several times since his hotel was completed, but this is the only time he has ever entered the doors. Whether his indifference is a freak or an affection no one seems to know. The managers of his business, who are old family friends and occupied a similar relation with his father, submitted to him the plans of the architect before construction was begun and they were approved by him, and he, of course, advised as to all that relates to the property. But he never goes there. A friend suggests that his peculiarity may perhaps arise from the fact that his late wife took an active part in planning, and particularly in selecting the decorations of the house, but one would suppose that would increase his interest in it.

A special reason for Mr. Astor to feel an attachment for the Waldorf is found on the first floor, where the dining room of his grandfather is exactly reproduced. When the old mansion was torn down to make way for the hotel the architect carefully removed the decorations from the walls of the original dining room, the old fashioned marquetry floor was taken up, the mantel, sideboards, window frames and doors, the fireplace, the chandeliers, and, in fact, all the furnishings and furnishings, which were of black walnut, handsomely carved, were stored away and then reset in what is known as the Astor memorial room, but William Waldorf never has had the curiosity to see it.

NEWBORN'S COMPLIMENT.

Appreciated by the Lady and Obtained a Reward.

Baltimore Life.
She was a very dainty and lovely little maiden, gowned in a fetching creation of grass cloth over dark heliotrope silk. At her throat, wrists and belt were broad folds of violet satin ribbon. On her pretty head was an affair in straw, lace, cigarette and a bewildering array of pink roses, which she called a hat.

She was stopped by a ragged little newsboy on Charles street, who said pleadingly: "Wotcher buy a paper, lady?" The little urchin stood and stared at her, and forgot to take the penny she smilingly held out to him.

"What are you looking at, little boy?" she said as she tried to call his attention to the money without touching his dirty little sleeve.

"Nothin'—only was jus' thinkin' you is the beautiful lady I ever seed."

She smiled and gave him a flower from the large bunch she carried in her hand. Many a member of the gay set might have been in vain for the favor she bestowed unasked on this little child of the street. She blushed and hurried away, when she saw that the affair had been noticed by some well known man standing near.

One of them called the boy to him and said:

"I say, little chap, I'll give you fifty cents for that flower."

The little fellow opened his eyes in wonder. He looked at his treasure and thought of the triumph it would be to wear it before his associates and tell them that a 'sho' nuff fella' lady given it to him; then he pictured the delights that the fifty cents would bring. How grandly he would entertain his friends.

"I'll make it a dollar," said the man, before the boy trying him.

"You will do nothing of the kind," said his friend. "It is a shame to prove him dishonest. I have a fancy that the kid shall keep his flower. That will be a good story to tell at the club in the department age. Here, boy, take this and clear out," and he gave the much-stunned little urchin a dollar.

The boy looked at it in moment, his hand closed tightly over it. Yes, it was real. Then he ran as hard as he could, never even stopping to say "Thank you." He was afraid his fairy godmother, who seemed about today, would desert him, and the gentleman might change his mind.
